

Natalie Cutler

*Director, Communications & Government Relations
BWXT Nuclear Power Group (NPG) segment of BWXT*

- BWXT Canada Ltd.
- BWXT Nuclear Energy Canada Inc.
- BWXT Precision Manufacturing Inc.
- Intech International Inc.
- BWXT Medical Ltd.

Natalie Cutler is the Director of Communications and Government Relations for the Nuclear Power Group segment of BWX Technologies, Inc., (BWXT) which includes BWXT Canada Ltd., (BWXT Canada), its subsidiaries BWXT Nuclear Energy Canada Inc., BWXT Precision Manufacturing Inc., and Intech International Inc. as well as BWXT Canada's affiliate, BWXT Medical Ltd. (BWXT Medical). BWXT Canada and BWXT Medical are subsidiaries of BWXT. BWXT is headquartered in Lynchburg, Virginia.

BWXT's Nuclear Power Group serves the global commercial nuclear power industry with engineering, critical components, services and fuel, and it serves the nuclear medicine industry with medical isotopes and radiopharmaceuticals.

Natalie joined BWXT in 2009 and oversees employee communications, marketing, public relations, media relations and government relations for BWXT's operations in Canada. Natalie is the Chair of BWXT's Indigenous Relations Committee and Co-Chair for BWXT Nuclear Energy Canada's Community Liaison Committees in Peterborough and Toronto. Natalie also sits on the Diversity and Inclusion Committee for BWXT's operations in Canada and is a member of Women in Nuclear Canada.

Before joining BWXT, Natalie held communications, marketing and public relations positions in the contract office furniture and electronics recycling industries.

Natalie earned an honours diploma in Business Administration, Management Studies from Conestoga College in 1998.

About BWXT Canada Ltd.

BWXT Canada Ltd. (BWXT Canada) has over 60 years of expertise and experience in the design, manufacturing, commissioning and service of nuclear power generation equipment. This includes steam generators, nuclear fuel and fuel components, critical plant components, parts and related plant services. BWXT Canada's sister company, BWXT Medical Ltd. provides its customers, who conduct life-saving medical procedures for patients around the world, the benefit of decades of experience in the development, manufacturing, packaging and delivery of medical isotopes and radiopharmaceuticals. Headquartered in Cambridge, Ontario, BWXT in Canada has approximately 1,500 employees at locations in Cambridge, Dundas, Peterborough, Toronto, Arnprior, Pickering, Port Elgin, Owen Sound, Kanata and Oakville, Ontario and Vancouver, British Columbia. BWXT Canada is a subsidiary of BWX Technologies, Inc. (NYSE: BWXT). Follow us on Twitter @BWXT and learn more at www.bwxt.com.